

If you have been very ill, and are not recovering as fast as you expected, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will make your blood pure and will give you strength and energy.

Mrs. M. McShane, Hobart, sends this letter, with her photograph:
"After recovering from a long attack of typhoid fever I suffered from a poor appetite and great depression, and was so weak I could hardly walk. Having seen advertised as such a good blood purifier and general tonic, I thought I would try it. I did so, and soon my old strength came back, my appetite returned, and before I had finished the second bottle I could do all my work just as well as before."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "AYER'S."

CHINESE CONSULAR RECEPTION

Many People Attend the Birthday Function.

The birthday of His Imperial Majesty Kwang Su, Emperor of China, was honored in Honolulu yesterday by a reception at the Chinese consulate. The public was invited and many citizens took advantage of the opportunity to pay their respects to the official representative of the Chinese government. A large number of officials, headed by Acting-Governor Atkinson, called, and almost the entire consular corps, with the exception of a few who were absent from the city, were at the reception.

The Hawaiian band was stationed in the spacious grounds at the corner of Young and Victoria streets and played beautiful music throughout the reception, which lasted from noon until two in the afternoon. The lanai of the consulate was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns of many shapes, sizes and colors. Within the house the decorations were simple but effective, cut flowers being arranged in vases, while rich Chinese scarfs and hangings brightened the mauka reception room. Here Consul Chang Tso Fan and his secretary in their brilliant robes of office received the guests and chatted with each while refreshments were served, the guests proposing the health of the Emperor.

Out on the big flag pole in the lawn the yellow flag of China with its blue dragon and the red sun-disc descending into the mouth of the beast, was floating all day in honor of the Emperor's birthday. The great flag on the capitol was also flying, as were the flags on all the foreign consulates. This is the emperor's thirty-third birthday, and he is now in the thirty-first year of his reign. He is the son of Prince Chun, seventh brother of the Emperor Hien-Feng and succeeded to the throne by proclamation at the death of the Emperor Tung-chi, January 22, 1875. He is the ninth emperor of China of the Manchu dynasty of Ts'ing, which overthrew the native dynasty of Ming in the year 1644. In China there exists no law of hereditary succession to the throne, but it remains with each Emperor to designate his successor from among the members of his family of a younger generation. The late emperor, dying suddenly in the eighteenth year of his age, failed to nominate his successor, and it was in consequence of arrangements directed by the Empress Dowager, Tszu-Hsz (born November 17, 1834), widow of the Emperor Hien-Feng, predecessor and father of Tung-chi, in concert with Prince Chun, that the infant son of the latter was made the nominal occupant of the throne.

TONIGHT THE KAM MINSTRELS

Tonight the Kamehameha Minstrels hold forth for a second time at the Orpheum and the prospects are for a crowded house. Many who slipped up on the first show will make a point of being present this evening.

The program which made such a hit a week ago will be repeated, with the addition of several especially attractive numbers.

It will be advisable to secure tickets as early as possible in order to avoid possible disappointment.

The show is well worth the price charged, and the object, the educating of indigent young Hawaiians, is a most worthy one.

Popular prices will prevail, and everybody will be enabled to enjoy the performance of these clever amateurs and be agreeably surprised at the existence of such genuine ability to entertain, in Honolulu. Many a time has a higher tariff prevailed and the entertainment been far inferior to that furnished by the Kamehameha Minstrels.

Tickets may be obtained at the Bergstrom Music Store and the box office at the Orpheum will remain open all day.

Throat Coughs

A tickling in the throat; hoarseness at times; a deep breath irritates it;—these are features of a throat cough. They're very deceptive and a cough mixture won't cure them. You want something that will heal the inflamed membranes, enrich the blood and tone up the system is just such a remedy. It has wonderful healing and nourishing power. Removes the cause of the cough and the whole system is given new strength and vigor . . .

AWOMANTOBE PRETTY
must have pretty hair. Beautiful locks have a subtle charm, for the poet says, "fair tresses man's imperial race ensnare." The unpoetic and intensely real dandruff microbe makes the hair dull, brittle and lusterless with later dandruff, itching, scalp and falling hair. Newbro's Herpicide destroys this enemy of beauty and enables the hair to resume its natural luster and abundance. Almost marvelous results follow the use of Herpicide. An exquisite hair dressing. Overcomes excessive oiliness and makes the hair light and fluffy. No grease or dye. Stops itching instantly.
